CRUMPLED GARMENTS
Do you ever forget to take durable press garments from the dryer immediately from the dryer when it stops? This has happened to me. To remedy this condition of crumpled clothes, dampen them and put them through another short drying cycle. Even better, add a damp towel to distribute the moisture evenly.

CHEESE
Casseroles containing cheese should be baked at low to moderate temperatures. To keep cheese toppings from toughening or hardening, cover the cheese with crumbs or add cheese just a few minutes before casserole comes out of the oven. Shred or dice cheese so that it will melt more quickly.

READING
How can you help your child be ready to read? Basic to a child's reading ability is not only his mental equipment, but his physical equipment as well—a mature pair of eyes and a mature nervous system.

Reading readiness cannot be built into children, but must be motivated. It isn't speeded up by forcing or beginning training in reading at a very early age. Instead, the child's early life should be filled with enriching experiences that will motivate him to want to read when he is physically and mentally ready.

Enriching experiences, such as trips, playing, projects, story time, looking at books and magazines, discussions, displays and even listening to the radio things about which your child asks questions even while reading. Capitalize on the things a child wants to learn now. There are many things, answers in any and every way, you are encouraging his development and helping him get ready to read.

FOOD SYMBOLS
Food shoppers who stretch their dollars by selecting items currently in plentiful supply may soon have their work made easier for them.

I read just recently where a symbol has been devised to help shoppers swiftly identify plentiful foods. This new symbol resembles the postmark on a letter. The words plentiful foods are written where the home town would be shown on the post mark and near U-S-D-A is written where the state name would be located. In the center of the circle is an abstract P and F. Watch for this new symbol in advertisements or in specials in food stores.

HOSPITAL TO ENFORCE NEW
VISITING HOURS

Strict enforcement of regulations governing visitors and visiting hours are to begin Monday September 28, 1970, according to Lowell Benton, administrator.

"Visiting hours are a source of pleasure to the patient and break the monotony of a long day in bed, however, too many visitors tire a patient and retard recovery, so we must ask that visitors observe a few necessary rules in visiting," stated Benton.

He said visitors should use the front entrance to the hospital. Information regarding the location of a patient may be obtained at the information desk in the lobby.

Daily visiting hours are: 10:00 A.M. to 1:30 P.M.; 2:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M.; 7:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. Children under 12 may not visit. No more than two visitors at a time.

All visitors are asked to please observe "No Visitors" and "No Smoking" signs as ordered by the patient's physician. Consideration and observation of these requests will aid the patient in recovery.

Benton said this rule is not his intention to inconvenience patients or visitors but that it is the staff's intention to provide the best possible care at all times.

Homecoming Queen Elected By Elba High
Beautiful Vicki Vaughan has been selected by the student body of Elba High School as homecoming queen with Misses Harriette Bullard and Jan Young as attendants.

The homecoming queen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Vaughan, Jr. Miss Bullard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bullard and Miss Young the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Young.

Homecoming queen and attendants are seniors at Elba High School and all are lovely young ladies. They will be honored Friday night at Elba Tiger-Hartford Bulldog football game and presented to the fans in ceremonies on the football field. They will have the honor of riding atop the Queen's float at the big homecoming parade Friday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

Coach Nix To Speak Here Tuesday Night
The Tiger Quarterback Club will meet Tuesday night, September 29, at the Elba Country Club. Coach Paul Nix of the University of Alabama will be guest speaker, according to Quarterback Tommy Wise.

All members should attend this meeting and assist in supporting the Elba Tigers in a successful football season for 1970.

Elba Drops Opp 20-14

The Elba Tigers christened the new Elba football stadium in fine style last Friday night. They defeated the Opp Bobcats by a score of 20-14.

Elba started the scoring in the first quarter when they marched from their own 15 yard line in 10 plays that included bucking the middle for 14 yards by Dennis Smith. The first score was a touchdown by Hines, Jeffcoat scored from the 3 after completing a fourth down, 15 yard to go pass to senior fullback Mike Boothe. Jeffcoat also ran the PAT successfully.

Score Elba 12, Opp 0. Beginning the second half Elba kicked off to Opp and the Bobcats took the ball from their own 30 and marched 70 yard in a dozen plays to score. Hines scored for Opp the time and Boothe carried the ball into the line after the PAT but Don Vaughan and David Stinson stopped him real suddenly before he reached the goal line. Score Elba 12, Opp 14.

The ballgame seasawed back and forth for most of the game. The Tiger's were inspired by several exciting plays such as a fake punt by Elba with Hines taking the ball and plunging through the middle for a first down.

Late in the third quarter Opp punted to Elba and it rolled dead on the Elba 35. From their Smith ran left end for 15 yards. A few minutes later the same play by Smith carried the ball 30 yards to the Opp 15. Two hard bucks through the middle by Scarbrough took the ball to the one and Stinson bucked the middle ran over the PAT on the dangerous (for Opp) option play. Score Elba, 20, Opp 14.

The scoring for the evening was over but no one in the stadium at that time could say that. Opp came back passing and Elba went charging in to stop them. Opp's Jeffcoat tried to pull the Elba option play and when he got in trouble he pitched out to Hines. The play lost yards.

This is the time when the Elba Tigers seemed to come to life again. Freddie Moore got a perfect tackle on Hines right at the 50 yard line on the Elba side and broke up a perfect pass in the same area.

New Contract

Senators John Sparkman and James Allen and Congressman George Andrews announced today that the Army plans to renegotiate civilian contractor instruction at its Army Aviation School at Fort Rucker, provided a satisfactory contract can be negotiated at a satisfactory price.

The Secretary of the Army advised members of Alabama's Congressional delegation that the Army plans to take immediate action to obtain bids and will negotiate award of a new contract at the earliest practicable date.

The contract will re-establish civilian instruction in primary rotary wing instrument training and advanced fixed wing instrument training at the school.

Members of the Balliet Dance Group are Yuri Chatal, Martin Fredmann, Lincolnton, Nancy Turpin and Lynn Short.

Season tickets for the Arts Association events are on sale now, being $12 for adults and $6 for students. Individual tickets for the Ballet Dance Group are $3 for adults and $1.50 for students.

Tickets are available from the Fine Arts Department at Enterprise State Junior College. Tickets may also be purchased through Mart Engstrom, Enterprise Banking Company, Enterprise; Lamar Rainer, Peoples Bank, Elba; Mrs. Colley Pittman, Box 61, New Brockton; Mrs. H. J. Dick, 501 Park Ave., Opp; Mrs. Dorothy Rainer, Box 497, Florala; Mrs. Helen J. Reagan, 509 Second Ave., Geneva; and Mrs. Jack Delony, Oakark.

Other events included this season are Mark Twain Tonight on January 11 at Oakark High School, Brass Ensemble on March 13 at Enterprise High School, Rainer Twine Piano Duo on April 17 at Florala High School, and String Quartet at Elba High School and Geneva High School with the date to be announced.

City Clerk Urges Citizens To Divide Leaves
Home owners are urged by the city garbage department to separate leaves from trash and limbs for pick-up.

City Clerk, Tom Dyess, points out that large trash and limbs cannot be put through the vacuum machine and when limbs do get into it along with leaves the result is a lot of damage to the machine's operation.

The pick-up department is making special efforts to keep the city's streets clean and are asking that home owners help them by separating the leaves from limbs and trash.

Creel Named As "Player of Week"
Quarterback Danny Creel was honored this week as Player of the Week by the Elba Rotary Club. The honor and accompanying trophy were presented to Creel at the regular Rotary meeting Monday of this week.

Both Rotary President Oscar Vaughan, Jr., and Head Coach Leon Atkins commended Creel for his performance during the current season and especially for leading the Elba Tigers to a "great victory for Elba" (defeating Opp 20-14).

Atkins told the Rotarians, "I could have brought you any one of eleven players this week and known that you had not made a bad choice." He was referring to the excellent team effort exhibited Friday night.

Vaughan added, "Elba showed itself in perfect form Friday night. The new band uniforms, the new stadium, a capacity crowd with enthusiasm." He continued, "The band performance was perfect and the football team superb. It makes us proud to be a part of this community."

Tickets Now On Sale
For Six Area Events

The Ballet Dance Group, first of six events being brought to this area by the Alabama Arts Association during the 1970-71 school year, will perform at Opp High School October 14. The program is being coordinated by Enterprise State Junior College.

Members of the Balliet Dance Group are Yuri Chatal, Martin Fredmann, Lincolnton, Nancy Turpin and Lynn Short.

Season tickets for the Arts Association events are on sale now, being $12 for adults and $6 for students. Individual tickets for the Ballet Dance Group are $3 for adults and $1.50 for students.

Homecoming Planned At Elba High
Elba High School will observe homecoming Friday night, September 25, during the afternoon and members of the 1940 graduating class will hold a place of honor for the parade and at the football game that night at Tiger Stadium when the Elba Tigers will host the Hartford Bulldogs.

The parade will roll at 2:30 Friday afternoon. This is a big feature of homecoming in Elba and attracts a lot of special attention. Flats and students of the schools in Elba right on down to kindergarten ages will have a part in the parade. The football teams, down to the pee-wee's will participate in the parade.

Friday night, prior to the football game, the honor class of 1940 will enjoy a dinner party. At the football game they will have a section set aside in honor of the graduating class of 1940 from Elba High School.

A picture of the 1940 class is in the issue of The Elba Clipper. In most instances the ladies in the picture have their name before marriage listed in brackets, followed by their married name. It is not known if all members of the 1940 graduating class are still living but it is supposed, that most, if not all are living though several have been lost as to their whereabouts.

Stores will decorate their windows in the football colors for the big event. And a record crowd is expected for the football game.

New Brockton To Select New Beauties
The "Miss New Brockton" and "Little Miss New Brockton" Pageants will be held at the new Brockton High School, Thursday, September 24, 1970, at 7:30 p.m.

Winners from these events will represent the City of New Brockton in the National Peanut Festival in Dothan in October. These events will be sponsored by the Exchange Club of New Brockton.

Debbie Fuller Named
Miss Elba On Thursday

Debbie Fuller, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fuller, was crowned Miss Elba last Thursday night at the annual Elba Lions Club Beauty Pageant.

Thirty-one beautiful girls were contestants for the "Miss Elba" honor. Crowning the winner of the contest was the 1969 Miss Elba, Miss Christina Cooper, who is now a student at the University of Alabama.

Miss Elba 1970 has brown hair and blue eyes. She is a senior at Elba High School and will represent Elba in the National Peanut Festival in Dothan in October.

First runner-up was Miss Vicki Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Vaughan, Jr. She is also a senior at Elba High School.

Second runner-up was Jackie Smart, daughter of the National Peanut Festival Police Chief and Mrs. Jack Smart.

Lisa White, who was crowned "Little Miss Elba" in April, was recognized during the pageant. Miss Beverly Horn, current reigning National Peanut Festival Queen, was also present. She will yield her crown at the Peanut Festival in October in Dothan.

Special Music Program Set At Local Church

Couple Unite In Marriage

Miss Marsha Elaine Kennedy became the bride of Stephen Edwards Ham, Jr., at a 7:30 p.m. ceremony, at the West End Baptist Church in Birmingham.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William W. Kennedy, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Edwards Ham.

Twelve in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight French silk and English net featuring a Victorian neckline and Bishop sleeves. The gown was accented with re-embroidered Alencon lace. The skirt flowed into a Chapel train accented with lace motifs. A face and pearl Juliet cap held her full length silk illusion veil.

Mrs. William Whitten Kennedy III was honor maid. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Earl James, Mrs. Thomas Eugene Davis, and Miss Margaret Pruitt.

Bridesmaids wore gowns of Chocolate silk chiffon designed along Empire lines accented at the Empire line and the Bishop sleeves with French embroidery in apricot and lime green shades. Veils of illusion fell from velvet Dior bows.

Mr. Ham was his son's best man. Groomsman were William Whitten Kennedy III, Robert Earl James, and Joseph C. Vance III.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony. The bride's table covered with a white satin tablecloth overlaid with lace, was accented by a four tier bride's cake decorated with white and apricot spun canny flowers. White candles in two five-arm candelabras were placed at each side of the bride's cake.

The groom's table was covered with candlelight satin. Gold and black candelabras holding yellow candles were placed on each side of the groom's table.

Apricot slush was served from the silver punch bowl on each side of the groom's table. The three ring devil food cake was covered with white frosting finished with chocolate embossing and clusters of pecan halves. Mrs. Gary Flowman and Miss Susan Battles, registered the guests. The bride's book and an arrangement of yellow carnations, centered with a white memory candle were the appointments for the reception table which was covered with yellow satin and white net.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Dauphin Island and New Orleans. They will be at home in Birmingham.

Impressive Ceremony Unites

Miss Dickert, Mr. Bennett

Miss Jill Dickert became the bride of Charles Dowdle Bennett August 29th, at six o'clock in a candlelight ceremony at the Brundidge Methodist Church. The pastor, The Rev. James T. Ross, performed the impressive double ring ceremony.

Fluoridation

Reduces Dental

Bills 50 Percent

Alabama residents could reduce their children's dental bills by up to 50 percent, Dr. John M. Arnold, director of Alabama's Bureau of Dental Health, announced, according to Dr. Arnold, fluoridation of the public water supplies is the most practical and effective public health measure yet discovered for the prevention of tooth decay.

"Children who drink fluoridated water from birth receive dental treatment which will have up to 50 percent fewer cavities," he added. "If every community fluoridated its water supply, the annual saving in unnecessary dental treatments would be about $700 million a year — a return of approximately $50 for every dollar invested in fluoridation."

In emphasizing the effectiveness of fluoridation, Dr. Arnold cited the results of a 10-year post-fluoridation study in Fayette County, Alabama in which a 57.5 percent reduction in tooth decay was reported. Almost a million Alabamians in 100 cities are now receiving the benefits of fluoridated water.

Miss Sheila Vaughn registered the guests. The bride's book and an arrangement of yellow carnations, centered with a white memory candle were the appointments for the reception table which was covered with yellow satin and white net.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Dauphin Island and New Orleans. They will be at home in Birmingham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dickert of Brundidge, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Terry W. Bennett of Columbus, Mississippi.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception at the Brundidge Country Club, where the entrance was illuminated with hurricane lamps adorned with large white satin bows.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Lawrence Bowden and the foyer was decorated with arrangements of yellow and gold specimen daisies. The bride's register was kept by Miss Nancy Crawley and placed on a table covered with a white lace cloth and held an arrangement of honey comb wedding bells in a bronze tray.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Escar Marley, Mrs. Randolph Johnston, Mrs. Ralph Dickert and Mrs. Lamar Dickert. The serving tables were covered with white satin and linen cloths edged with imported rose point lace, outlined with gold ropes with tassels in the Victorian design. The bride's table was held and held a four leaf clover vase and multi-tiered white wedding cake, the tiers separated with slender columns, and decorated with harvest gold sugar spun roses, and crested with a miniature bride and groom. The bride's bouquet was placed on her table.

The center table held a silver punch service on one end and a silver coffee service on the other and was centered with silver candelabras holding burning yellow tapers and tied with variegated ribbon and wedding bells. Silver compotes were filled with toasted nuts.

The groom's round table held the chocolate tiered groom's cake decorated with candied fruit in natural fruit colors and was placed on a marble slab encircled with ivy. Massive bronze candlesticks held burning yellow tapers and the other appointments were a pair of bronze birds.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Charles Butler, Cathie Brantley, Mrs. Danny Preswood, and Miss Elizabeth Ann Bell. Little Miss Stacey Dickert, niece of the bride, passed the napkins.

For traveling the bride chose a navy and orange striped sheath dress with long sleeves topped with a full length navy sleeveless coat, a wide brim navy hat and matching accessories. She wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will reside in Tuscaloosa where she is a senior majoring in Speech Therapy and he is in Graduate School in Industrial Engineering.

The groom's parents were hosts at the after-reception seated dinner at the Holiday Inn in Troy, where a delicious four course meal was served.

Green grapes and black wrought iron candelabras holding burning green candles centered the length of the banquet table.

where artistic place cards in green and gold design marked the places for the eighteen guests, which included the wedding party, members of the families and guests from out of town.

Mrs. Ralph Dickert and Mrs. Lawrence Bowden, aunts of the bride, honored Miss Dickert and Mr. Bennett on their wedding day with a luncheon at the home of the former on Dickert Hill.

The buffet meal was served from a table covered with a green linen cloth and held an artistic arrangement of green mums with dainty ferns and silver candle sticks with burning green tapers.

The guests, which included the families and out of town wedding guests, were seated at round tables covered with white linen and lace cloths and centered with dainty ceramic place cards. The hostesses presented the honored couple with a gift of crystal.

Among the out of town guests in Brundidge during the weekend to attend the Dickert-Bennett wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Terry W. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Dowdle and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis P. Odum, all of Columbus, Mississippi; Mrs. J. W. Kendrick, Mrs. C. E. Dorsey, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Pineard and Mrs. Ted Vaughan, all of Elba; Mrs. Gib Westcott and Miriam, Mr. and Mrs. Dale McKeen and Andy, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Frank Dickert, of Panama City Beach, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Dickert of Eufaula; Mrs. Bill Weston of Montgomery; Mr. and Mrs. Julian Newton and Julian of Tallahassee, Florida; Mrs. L. V. Shields and Sally of Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Byrd of Daleville; Mrs. Richard Sanders of Ozark; and Mrs. Homer Rushing of Spring Hill.

Honeymoon Afternoon

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE SUNDAY

Memories are precious things. I remember often the afternoon on our honeymoon when Jim and I visited these old cliff dwellings in Colorado. Later, we stopped at a mission church built of pink adobe. It was dark and cool inside, and you felt that many prayers had been said here, and many answered.

I thought of our own church back home — white frame, in a green New England valley. I was reared in that church. I was married in it, and you'll find Jim and me at worship in it each Sunday. It's a vital part of our life.

Unless you have a church that is vital to your life, you are missing something irreplaceable. Don't wait any longer. Select the Church of your choice — and start attending it this Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Kimmy's

TOUR OF THE ORIENT

By Mrs. Kimmy

Our journey actually began in Atlanta as we left our car there and flew to Los Angeles. We spent the night in the International Hotel which adjoins the International Airport. The hotel is completely sound proof and we could watch the huge planes land and take off without hearing them. Our flight out of Los Angeles was on a Japanese Air Line (JAL) 747 jet.

All of our flights until we started back home were on JAL planes. We soon called them "Japan always late" flights which they usually were. The crews were Japanese but dressed in Western style except for one stewardess on each flight. She was dressed in traditional Kimono with Obi. The Kimonos were of beautiful material, colors and workmanship. The girls were pretty too.

The time changes were most confusing. We left LA at 8:30 p.m. After a six hour flight we landed in Honolulu at 3:15 p.m. We were asked to deplane for refueling. None could leave the terminal as we did not expect to be here long. It was three hours before we were again in the air. Not only did we completely lose Sunday as we crossed the International Date Line between Honolulu and Tokyo but we missed our flight to Kyoto by being so late and lost one day of our stay in the old capital of Japan. We spent the night in Tokyo.

However, there was a compensation as our trip to Kyoto was made in the day time on the famous Japanese "Bullet Train."

so called because of its speed. This is a modern electric train which travels over one hundred miles per hour. It's route is through country of great scenic beauty. At times we were close to the sea and could see ships far and the waves. We rode through rice paddies in the low lands and then close to fields of tea and mulberry bushes planted on the mountain sides. There were bridges across deep valleys and tunnels which were brightly lit. We passed through several cities and a fishing village. These sights we would have missed had we flown at night.

Our first day in Kyoto we went by bus to Osaka for a visit to Expo '70. A few minutes after we entered the grounds, rain fell and the grounds were covered with a beautiful moving sidewalk. The escalators were broken, the escalators were out of order and every available bit of cover was crowded with people. I must confess we saw very little. We visited the Communicator and Japanese Steel buildings and the International Plaza where different countries held festivals. The one for that day was scheduled for the afternoon with the emperor expected to attend. All of the exhibits had long lines waiting in the rain. Members of our group waited two and one half hours to see America's. Others waited three hours to get in Russia's. We went back to the hotel in Kyoto.

The hotel is new and very attractive. In the lobby are shops where you can buy many things including Japanese prints, enameled objects and pearls. The back wall of the lobby is glass with a balcony over water in a beautiful natural looking pool. It is glass with a balcony over water in a beautiful natural looking pool. The next day was fair and we had an interesting tour of the city.

Harry W. Crook Receives Silver Wings

Second Lieutenant Harry W. Crook, son of retired Air Force Master Sergeant and Mrs. William R. Crook of Rt. 1, Elba, Ala., has been awarded silver wings upon graduation from U. S. Air Force navigators training at Mather AFB, Calif.

Lieutenant Crook is being assigned to Blytheville AFB, Ark., for flying duty with the 9th Air Refueling Squadron. The 97th is a unit of the Strategic Air Command, America's nuclear deterrent force of long range bombers and intercontinental ballistic missiles.

The lieutenant, a 1965 graduate of Satellite High School, Satellite Beach, Fla., received his B. S. degree in journalism in 1969 from the University of Florida. He was commissioned upon completion of Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex.

His wife, Barbara, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Vincellente of 135 Gulf View Lane, Ormond Beach, Fla.

HOG PRODUCTION
Extension Farm Agent We hope it will be helpful to you. J. R. Speed and I were to other folks in the county, well pleased to have Mr. Jim Frank Waters of the Elba community. Both of these hogs are doing top jobs in producing high quality hogs. Waters and his son Wal-ter Waters have 40 brood sows and are selling ap- proximately 600 top hogs per year. Mills has 80 a little in the spring, but brood sows and will pro- duce about 1200 top hogs a year. Both of these men told of their expe-

By Tom Casaday, County Extension Chairman

COFFEE CONSERVATION
Information from exper-iment stations in most of the Southeastern States shows that grazing light-weight calves on small grains is a profitable busi-ness. Grains average a-bout two pounds per day or 300 pounds per acre. Coffee County cattlemen can make use of small grains, such as rye, for temporary winter pasture and "kill two birds with one stone." Besides the profit from the beef pro-duced, there is the added benefit from erosion con-trol and the addition of organic matter to the soil. The secret of success in this operation is early planting — around Sep-tember 20, and a liberal application of a fertilizer that includes plenty of ni-trogen.

POUNDS POPULAR PRACTICE
Pond building is still one of the most popular con-servation practices being in-stalled in Coffee County. At least three or four are under construction at almost any given time. Some of the ponds com-pleted recently were on the farms of J. R. Shellgrove, in the Mt. Pleasant Com-munity; Horace Sessions in the Bradshaw Commu-nity; Jimmy Holley in the Ino Community; T. O. Ni-chols of the Weeks Com-munity; W. H. Smith of the Calvary Community; and D. D. Littleton and James Tindol of the Woodland Grove Community.

GOOD TREATMENT PAYS
Weed control and mod-erate amounts of fertilizer was the key to good Coast-al bermuda hay yields on Ray Fuller's farm in the Ino Community. The five-acre plot was cleared of soil bank pines and planted to Coastal ber-muda last spring. Weeds tor a lot of Coffee County folks.

ORCHARD MANAGEMENT
Mrs. Willie Coon of Kin-ston came in the office a few days ago talking about diseases that were ruin-ing her apples and peaches. The Coons planted several nice apple trees several years back and also some peach trees. But the past couple of years they have had disease problems. I gave Mrs. Coon our new spray schedule for apples and peaches. She said that she would buy a sprayer and do a better job this coming year.

HOG TOUR
About 12 hog producers attended the recent tour of the hog research facilities at Auburn. While we were there Dr. Bill Warren, head of the Animal Science Department at Auburn, pointed out that packers prefer hogs weighing around 200 pounds. According to Warren the labor involved in processing a 220 pound hog is not much more than processing a 180 pound one and that the extra weight in-creases the efficiency. Speaking on hog produc-tion in the future, Warren said, "We will have to be more efficient in our pro-duction. In the future, therefore, it is extremely important to produce hogs that will be profitable for the producer and accept-able by the consumer."

WINTERING BROOD COWS
According to some re-cent research conducted at the lower coastal plain in Camden, mature brood cows can be wintered on hay alone, but to do this or peanuts close by, other material will be safer, and other weed materials. These materials can be applied during the danger of trying to get all of the effective control is gotten down on a lot of the labor involved.

WASHABLE WALLPAPER
Washable wallpaper was once the dreamy stepchild of other wall coverings, banished to areas that demanded durability above all other considerations. But today's washable wallpaper is so versatile and fashionable that it became the Cinderella of the decorating world.

In fact, wallpaper isn't always paper anymore! It may be vinyl fabric or paper treated with vinyl coating for durability and for quick and easy cleaning of household soils. And the colors, patterns and finishes don't look like paper, either. Newest of all are the "wet-look" papers that resemble shiny patent leather. In stripes, paisleys and bold designs, they add polish to a small area or room.

Washable flocks are now available that make the rich look of velvet practical—even for the kitchen and bath. Some are formal patterns, others look like animal stripes or combine the textures of flocking and foil.

Handy homemakers will appreciate the ease of hanging many of the new wallpapers. Look for pre-pasted and stripable wall covering that requires a minimum of skill for installation. Many women

SOUTH TO BEGIN CUTTING MORE WOOD

With increasing demands, the South will begin cutting more wood than it grows in the late '70's if there is no change in present levels of forest management.

Farm forester Barton Williams says Alabama fits perfectly into this projection for the Southern region. To supply the needs of existing wood-using industries, Alabama is currently cutting 80 percent of its next annual growth. Alabama's timber production at present is less than half the potential possible through better management. The state has 21.7 million acres in commercial timber production, but it only averages one-half cord per acre per year. With good forest management practices, the average production could be 1 to 1 1/2 cords per year.

Williams says the problem of such low productivity lies with Alabama's 167,000 small forest landowners. They own 12 million acres of commercial forest land out of the state total of 21.7 million acres. Their ownership size averages 500 acres or less of forest land and this is where the best potential lies for increased timber production through better management.

The Alabama Forestry Commission staffs Williams and R.C.D. Forester Douglas A. Smith at the Ozark District Office. These foresters can supply timber management recommendations to forest landowners at no charge. They can be contacted through your county forest ranger or at the Ozark office.

are finding that you don't have to be a professional to create effects worthy of an interior decorator in your home—with wallpaper. And the results are as practical as they are pretty.

When buying eggs, do you know how to get the most for your money? If the price difference between large and medium eggs of the same grade is seven cents or less, large eggs are your better buy. grade and freeze in moisture, vapor-proof containers. Freeze. After thawing, boil as fresh nuts. If peanuts are boiled in brine and then frozen, the salt could cause them to develop a rancid flavor—especially after being frozen three or more months. BREAKFAST Do you ever go to the office—of send your children to school without breakfast? Many do, and it's a big mistake. When breakfast is skipped, students take longer to make decisions, are less steady and their work output is less. By seeing that breakfast is eaten students will become more alert, and could possibly improve learning. What better proof is needed that breakfast is an important part of a child's learning experience.
